Zanzotto Vivienne Hand 1994 "Andrea Zanzotto (1921-) is now widely recognised as Italy's greatest living poet.

This is the first comprehensive study of Zanzotto's poetry, making it accessible not only to scholars of Italian literature but to all readers with a general interest in contemporary European literature." "Vivienne Hand provides line-for-line translations of Zanzotto's poems as well as detailed textual analyses. She highlights the intertextuality of Zanzotto's work - how it draws not only on the Italian (medieval, renaissance and modern) tradition, but also on other modern European poets such as Eluard, Lorca and Holderlin. And concentrating on the poet's presentation of language, self and reality, she offers a lucid insight into the interaction between modern linguistic and psychoanalytic theory and creative writing."--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary

Art world through the lens of Buby Durini Buby Durini 1997 In this book the reader will see hitherto unpublished, historical photographs which, nevertheless, always live the surge and passion of a human relationship. Buby Durini was not a photographer, nor was he interested in photographic techniques. Together with Lucrezia De Domizio he began his journey both in art and beyond art. For Buby Durini it was only possible to photograph if he loved, and for him "to love" meant understanding, sharing, collaborating and living truth by way of the lens of life. During the last twenty-five years of his existence the love for Nature and Mankind led him to the profound meaning of art, establishing a rare and privileged relationship with the most important protagonists of the culture belonging to the later post-war period. An almost fraternal bond united him to Joseph Beuys with whom - and on a continuous basis - he shared numerous scientific and spiritual vicissitudes. The annotations, thoughts, testimonies, images and the same anomalous structure of the book are contributions towards the broadening of thought, expressions addressed to the sublimation of human creativity.

In the Midst of Winter Isabel Allende 2017-10-31 New York Times and worldwide bestselling "dazzling storyteller" (Associated Press) Isabel Allende returns with a sweeping novel about three very different people who are brought together in a mesmerizing story that journeys from present-day Brooklyn to Guatemala in the recent past to 1970s Chile and Brazil. In the Midst of Winter begins with a minor traffic accident—which becomes the catalyst for an unexpected and moving love story between two people who thought they were deep into the winter of their lives. Richard Bowmaster—a 60-year-old human rights scholar—hits the car of Evelyn Ortega—a young, undocumented immigrant from Guatemala—in the middle of a snowstorm in Brooklyn. What at first seems just a small inconvenience takes an unforeseen and far more serious turn when Evelyn turns up at the professor's house seeking help. At a loss, the professor asks his tenant Lucia Maraz—a 62-year-old lecturer from Chile—for her advice. These three very different people are brought together in a mesmerizing story that moves from present-day Brooklyn to Guatemala in the recent past to 1970s Chile and Brazil, sparking the beginning of a long overdue love story between Richard and Lucia. Exploring the timely issues of human rights and the plight of immigrants and refugees, the book recalls Allende's landmark novel The House of the Spirits in the way it embraces the cause of "humanity, and it does so with passion, humor, and wisdom that transcend politics" (Jonathan Yardley, The Washington Post). In the Midst of Winter will stay with you long after you turn the final page.

Caporetto Camillo Pavan 1997-10-03 Il paesaggio è avvolto nella nebbia e immerso nella più profonda oscurità quando, alle ore 2 del 24 ottobre 1917, si scatena il fuoco delle migliaia di cannoni che stavano in agguato fra Plezzo e Tolmino. Il rumore dei colpi, amplificato dall'eco delle montagne, è talmente terrificante che anche i veterani delle infernali battaglie della Somme e di Verdun esclamano convinti: "Oggi non vorrei proprio essere un italiano". (Krafft von Dellmensingen) - Nessuna battaglia era stata prevista con tanta precisione e nessuna battaglia fu affrontata con tanta fiducia quanta se ne aveva il 23 ottobre alla vigilia di Caporetto. (Relazione ufficiale italiana) - Era stato tutto previsto, tranne che gli attaccanti puntassero alla rottura del fronte partendo dal fondovalle. "Difendevamo con vigore i sentieri alpestri e trascuravamo le vie maestre". (Gen. Caviglia)
